

ABOUT THE PARTNERS

MVNGO

Mine Vaganti NGO is a no-profit organisation born in Sardinia in 2009, whose services encompass Education and Training, Project Design, Research, International Mobility and Consultancy. MVNGO has offices in Sassari, Olbia and Tempio Pausania covering all the North of Sardinia with other branches in the rest of Italy.

Promotes intercultural dialogue, social and green entrepreneurship, social inclusion through Sport, Formal and Non Formal Education including disadvantaged targets as migrants and people with disabilities.

MVNGO is part of 3 international networks such as YEE, ISCA and MV International.

IYDA

"Intercultural Youth Dialogue Association e.V." was established by a group of highly motivated multicultural people, is recognized as Migrant organization from their sister NGO IYDA Egypt. IYDA has risen to a well-established organization, registered as a non-profit, non-governmental organization that is member or associated member of 30 international networks (4 of them are EU network) IYDA is one of the founders of Euromedable Youth Network, one of the biggest networks of youth councils in Europe to gather European organizations and youth councils and south Mediterranean organizations and youth councils.

NORDIC EUROPEAN MOBILITY

Nordic European Mobility (NEM), was born in December 2015 from a youth initiative with the mission of involving youth in the educational, cultural and social life of the communities they belong to. NEM seeks for ensuring that young people are empowered to develop the skills and confidence to fully participate as active citizens in an inclusive society. Aims all kind of people, no matter their gender, age or ethnic background. NEM is convinced that being exposed to different cultures and gaining knowledge on them is the best way to reach peace and a better understanding among people from different countries and backgrounds.

NAMOI

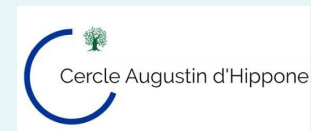

The Namoi association aims to protect human rights, defense of the legal interests of social excluded groups that be connected to a person's social class, race, skin color, religious affiliation, ethnic origin. Such exclusionary forms of discrimination may also apply to people with a disability, minorities, LGBTQ+ people, drug users, institutional care leavers, the elderly and young people. We also assist in solution of environmental, social and economic issues, and the issues of cultural development and education. We are a group of 5 employed staff members and 589 volunteers that are very active. We have more than 6000 followers all over the country. We work with intercultural dialogue between young people and increase mutual understanding.

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

Educating New Generations In building a Non-radicalised Environment

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

ABOUT THE PROJECT

ENGINE is a 24 months project aimed at empowering youth and social workers/operators who work with young people at risk of radicalisation, equipping them with efficient instruments and methodologies.

The target group of the project is Youth workers aged 25+ who work with young people at risk of radicalisation, young people aged 13-25.

The project uses Non Formal Education combined with Forum Theatre and Critical Thinking Methodology as a new pedagogical instrument. Goals: create an "Educational Pathway to Prevent Youth Radicalisation" Toolkit and a Web Platform "Youth Working for Eradic Action"

PROJECT ACTIVITIES

- 3 Transnational Project Meetings
- 3 Intellectual Outputs
- 5 Multiplier Events
- A Short-term joint staff training event
- A Blended mobility of young people

ABOUT THE COORDINATOR

Cercle Augustin d'Hippone is a member of the "national consultative group" set up by the Erasmus+ french national agency, it aims at: youth empowerment, engagement, promotion and education of democracy culture and spirit, citizenship and gender equality, cooperation and development.

After years of work on youth questions, we acquired enough experience and have the needed human resources to make all kind of projects successful.

Our ngo is a transnational organization with people from different countries of Europe and North Africa targeting especially young people and civil society on the matters of civic engagement, human rights, democratic culture, cooperation and development tools.

21 ter, Rue Voltaire
Paris, France 75011

+33658887510

www.cercleaugustindhippone.org

Cercle Augustin d'Hippone

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

With the support of the
Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union